NoBull Burger™

Moms do it all - from nurturing and loving to teaching and cooking - moms are the real MVP.

So much so, Founder of NoBull Burger and mom, Crissanne Raymond, began making veggie burgers in the 70s using ingredients inspired by her mother's lentil soup recipe. Over time, the veggie burgers gained a cult following at family events and potlucks, and Raymond's son eventually named the patties the "NoBull Burger." At the urging of her family, Crissanne launched a food business in 2011 with the help of her daughters, Heather Pinero and Elizabeth Raymond, and the team began selling NoBull Burgers wholesale to farmer's markets, restaurants, and grocery stores in Virginia and the Mid-Atlantic region.

NoBull Burger™, the true veggie burger made with 100% plants and 0% bull. All vegetables, straight from the earth. NoBull is NOT meant to be a meat imitator, but a true, whole-food, real food veggie burger.

The burgers can be found nationwide at Whole Foods Market, Erewhon, Natural Grocers, and more. Created by a mom, from her mom's recipe, NoBull Burger is the perfect food gift to give to mom (or even grill this Mother's Day too)!
